“Contrarian Living In The (Last Of The) Last Days”

1 Pet. 4:7-11

Reflection & Discussion

1. How is knowing that we’re in the last of the last days motivate you to live holy and righteously?
2. Consider your prayer life:
  - a. What are some Scriptures that emphasize the need for God’s people to pray continuously?
  - b. How would you answer the question: “What does it mean to pray to God?” Also: “How do you know if God is ‘answering’ your prayers?”
3. What does Peter mean when he expresses that “love covers a multitude of sins”?
  - a. How should a Christian’s expression of love be different from anyone else’s?
  - b. What Scriptures encourage you to demonstrate this love?
4. Every believer receives at least one spiritual gift:
  - a. For what purpose?
  - b. How does it affect the church if believers neglect their spiritual gift(s)?
  - c. How do you know that you have a particular gift? How should a Christian ‘cultivate’ any gifts they might have?
