

The Depravity of False Teachers // P. 3
(2nd Peter 2:14-19)

"But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. (10)For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pangs."

"But Judas Iscariot, one of His disciples (he who was about to betray Him), said, (5)'Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?' (6)He said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having charge of the moneybag he used to help himself to what was put into it."

John 12:4–6 (ESV)

"Then one of the twelve, whose name was Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests (15) and said, 'What will you give me if I deliver Him over to you?' And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. (16) And from that moment he sought an opportunity to betray Him."
